

CAREER WORKSHOP

American Art

February 8, 2019
10 – 11 a.m.

Helmholtz Institute Mainz – Staudingerweg 18 – 55128 Mainz
Conference Room 1395-00-133/135 (Ground Floor)

Interested in studying American art, working in museums, applying for research funding, or pursuing an academic career? In this unique workshop, speakers from the symposium International Perspectives on American Art will share their varied career paths in an informal discussion with students.

Speakers:

Dr. Christian Berger, Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz/The Courtauld Institute of Art, London

Prof. Dr. Winfried Fluck, John F. Kennedy Institute for North American Studies, Freie Universität Berlin

Prof. Dr. Ursula Frohne, Institut für Kunstgeschichte, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster

Eleanor Harvey, Ph.D., Senior Curator, Smithsonian American Art Museum, Washington, D.C.

Anna O. Marley, Ph.D., Curator of Historical American Art, Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia

Susanne Scharf, M.A., Frankfurt am Main

Space is limited.

Please register by email to Dr. Allison M. Stagg
(allstagg@uni-mainz.de) by February 1.