Direct Exchange Info Sessions

The Direct Exchange Program, established in 1956, is a unique opportunity for American Studies students at Mainz, connecting them directly with partner universities in the United States and Canada. The various exchange opportunities we offer—from simple undergraduate studies with tuition waivers to teaching/research assistantships for graduate-level studies—enable students to experience the United States and Canada firsthand.

You are interested and want to find out more about it? Join us for our online information sessions!

Please have a look at the General Information presentations, provided in the download section of the Obama Institute's exchange web page (<http://www.obama-institute.com/studies-2/exchange-programs>). Read over the presentation and note down any questions, which we will be happy to answer on Nov 10.

In order to join the sessions on MS Teams, just click on the respective link or copy the URL. You do not need to download the app. MS Teams also works web-based, but using the app is recommended.
