

May 5, 2025 | 12:00-14:00

OO.212, Philo II (Jakob-Welder Weg 20)

Photo by Eugene Golovesov on unsplash.com

Photo by Catalina Kulczar

From German Scientific Forestry to Healthcare: Seeing the Narrative Forest for the Trees

Danielle Spencer

Columbia University, New York

Danielle Spencer is the author of Metagnosis: Revelatory Narratives of Health and Identity (Oxford University Press, 2021) and co-author of Perkins-Prize-winning The Principles and Practice of Narrative Medicine (OUP, 2017). A faculty member in the Columbia University Narrative Medicine Graduate Program, her scholarly and creative work appears in diverse outlets, from The Lancet to Ploughshares, and she is the Editor of the Anthem Press Advances in Human Medicines book series. Formerly artist/musician David Byrne's Art Director, Spencer holds a B.A. from Yale University, an M.S. in Narrative Medicine from Columbia University, and a Ph.D. from Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz, and has been awarded fellowships at MacDowell and Yaddo. Lives in New York city.

daniellespencer.com