P13 (Philosophicum)

Join us for an info session about the new American Studies M.A. curriculum!

Starting in the winter semester of 2025/26, the American Studies M.A. program at JGU will launch a newly accredited curriculum.

The updated program offers greater flexibility:

You can now choose to complete all 120 credits within American Studies, combine your studies with two modules from another discipline, or earn additional credits through certified programs.

Who can apply?

Current Bachelor students majoring or minoring in American Studies, students enrolled in the Bachelor of Education program, as well as first-semester American Studies Master students who are considering switching to the new curriculum.
